Subsidy requirements

To obtain a subsidy:

- the family must live in Kloten
- the parents must be working or in training during the period care is provided (attending a German language class does not count as training)
- Minimum childcare hours day-nursery: 2 full days or 3 x 2/3 days
- Minimum childcare hours childminders: 8 hours with a childminder that is affiliated with the TFZU

The subsidy or the parental rate is based on the family's total income. This is calculated on the basis of annual salary statements from the previous year.

Calculation of subsidies

1. Calculation of relevant income

Father's annual net income as per salary statement	_____	CHF
+ mother's annual net income as per salary statement	_____	CHF
+ 5 % of assets up to CHF 100,000 as per tax statement	_____	CHF
+ 10 % of assets CHF 101,000 – 300,000 as per tax statement	_____	CHF
+ 15% of assets from CHF 301,000 as per tax statement	_____	CHF
+ Child support payments per year (if father/mother is a single parent and only one income is offset)	_____	CHF
+ supplement for cohabiting partner in the same household CHF 18 000	_____	CHF
= Family's overall income		CHF
Less
./. household deduction 2-parent family (CHF 15,000) CHF or	_____	CHF

./. deduction per child (after-school, day-nursery or child-minding CHF 5,000)	_____	CHF
= Relevant income		CHF

This overall income is used to determine the subsidy level or the parental rate to be charged.

2. Subsidies as per income table 0–4 years
